Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ: (a letter to our parishioners from Msgr. Kevin Michael Quirk)

Greetings in our Lord Jesus Christ! One would be hard pressed to find a better weekend to become pastor of these wonderful parishes and their associated missions and chapels than this weekend, the Solemnity of Ss Peter and Paul, 29 June, and Memorial of the First Martyrs of Rome, 30 June 2024.

These days mark climatic events in the life of the early Christians that reverberate throughout the life of the Church still. On the night of 18 July 64 AD, a fire broke out in the dry goods stalls around the Circus Maximus and, egged on by high winds, swept through the city of Rome, burning for six days and destroying over 70% of the city. This is the fire during which the Emperor Nero is supposed to have fiddled, either a statement about his incompetence in putting out the fire and managing the recovery or an indictment of his complicity in its actual setting, allegedly to claim more real estate for the building of his Golden House. Whatever the case, public opinion turned against Nero, whose efforts to mollify the people did little good, as the historian Tacitus tells us: - continued on next page

"But all human efforts, all the lavish gifts of the emperor, and the propitiations of the gods, did not banish the sinister belief that the conflagration was the result of an order. Consequently, to get rid of the report, Nero fastened the guilt and inflicted the most exquisite tortures on a class hated for their abominations, called Christians by the populace. Christus, from whom the name had its origin, suffered the extreme penalty during the reign of Tiberius at the hands of one of our procurators, Pontius Pilatus, and a most mischievous superstition, thus checked for the moment, again broke out not only in Judea, the first source of the evil, but even in Rome, where all things hideous and shameful from every part of the world find their center and become popular. Accordingly, an arrest was first made of all who pleaded guilty; then, upon their information, an immense multitude was convicted, not so much of the crime of firing the city, as of hatred against mankind."

Among those arrested and put to death for the fire were St. Peter, his daughter St. Petronilla, and hundreds of other Christians. As Tacitus tells us, they were taken to the Circus of Nero – about where the Piazza in front of the Basilica of St. Peter at the Vatican is located – and were put to death by crucifix, upside down in St. Peter's case, or thrown to wild animals. St. Peter was among the first to die, on 29 June 65; over the following two years many more were put to death, ending with St. Paul in 67.

St. Peter's body was taken down the night of his death and buried in the cemetery on the Vatican Hill; St. Paul's body was interred in a cemetery outside the Walls. It was their deaths in the City and the Churches eventually built by the Emperor Constantine over their places of burial that sanctified the ground of the Eternal City and made it the center of the Church, to which we still look for the confirmation of our faith.

Through the intercession of Saints Peter and Paul and the First Martyrs of Rome, may we continue to grow in the faith of Jesus Christ and may their examples and intercessions help me be a holy priest and worthy pastor among you. Happy Feast Day!

Affly yours in Christ,
Msgr. Kevin Michael Quirk
