Dear Family,

Today is the great solemnity of Pentecost. It is well known as the “Birthday of the Church.” However, we can trace the beginning of the Church to several events in the life of Christ.

First, the Church, it can be said, begins with the Incarnation. When God took up unto himself the flesh of humanity from the Blessed Virgin Mary, he created a body, which is the Church.

Second, The Church most clearly started with Christ calling his first disciples. We hear about some of those who would later become important leaders of the Church. This occurred in the beginning of his public ministry, drawing many others to himself.

A third and significant part of the Church is the naming of his Apostles, the twelve who would lead the Church. An interesting part of this choice is the naming of Judas Iscariot, who would betray Christ, telling us that there would always be those in the Church who would turn against Christ.

Fourth is the exchange between the Apostle Simon and Jesus in Mathew 16. Jesus named him “Peter” (Greek: Petros – “rock”), and he would be the rock upon which Christ would build his Church. At that point, the Church is beginning to take shape with leaders, members, and a specific singular leader.

Fifth is the crucifixion, which was the sacrifice once offered for the sins of the world. This would be the source and summit of the Church in the Eucharist. As Scott Hahn, Brant Pitre and others scholars have agreed, the crucifixion in the gospel narrative is a continuation of the Last Supper. In this whole event, the priesthood is created, the sacrifice is offered, and the priests would continue to offer this sacrifice sacramentally until the end of time for the salvation of souls. This same paschal mystery continues with the Resurrection and the Ascension.

Finally, we get the descent of the Holy Spirit, the final act in this drama of the founding of the Catholic Church by the Savior, that his work of salvation may continue through every generation.

Today is the birthday of the Church, but, like every birth, it is preceded by many events that lead to the appearance of a new life. The life in this case, is the Church, the body of Christ, created to be One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic, and we are part of it.

May God richly bless you today,

Fr. Jim Conyers

ROOF REPLACEMENT FUND UPDATE

We want to extend a heartfelt thank you to all the parishioners and visitors who have so generously contributed to our Roof Replacement Fund so far. As some of you already know, we need to replace the multi-level flat roof on the Rectory Building at St. Charles.

So far we have raised $ 65,595.

We have a applied for a Capital Fund Matching Grant from the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston. As soon as their review committee decides about the grant allocations, we will let you know.

As you can see by the graph at the right we have raised almost half of the required funds.

Please keep those donations coming in and stayed tuned for our next fundraising event.

If you would like to donate with a check, please make the check payable to “St. Charles” and put the word “Roof” in the memo line.

Thank you for helping keep our rectory in good shape!
