In the narthex of each church you will find baby bottles for Greenbrier Pregnancy Center's First Annual Baby Bottle Campaign. The future of GPC and its ministries are only possible through the prayers and provisions of local congregations, businesses and community members. They are fully donor supported and do not receive any government funds.

Put the bottle in a popular place in your home as a reminder to pray for the unborn and the men and women who are facing unplanned or crisis pregnancies. Fill the bottles with coins, cash and checks and return the bottles to the church on February 18, 2024. Other ways you can give are available as well, either with the provided self-addressed envelopes or online at www.GreenbrierPregnancyCenter.org

Together we can make a difference for the unborn and their families.

FATHER BILL KUCHINSKY is celebrating Masses with us this weekend.
On November 22, 1997, Father Kuchinsky was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, West Virginia. He served as an associate pastor for two years before being named a pastor in 2000. From 2003 to 2011, he pastored Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church in Romney.

He is a survivor of throat cancer after several years of radiation and chemotherapy. He served as head of prison ministry for the Diocese, he has been greatly involved in the pro-life movement, and serves on the board of the American Life League as their spiritual director. He retired recently and is serving as a supply priest throughout the state of West Virginia.

PSALM 95: 1-2

COME LET US SING JOYFULLY TO THE LORD;
LET US ACCLAIM THE ROCK OF OUR SALVATION,
LET US COME INTO HIS PRESENCE WITH THANKSGIVING;
LET US JOYFULLY SING PSALMS TO HIM.

Dear Family,

As I have announced, Bishop Mark Brennan is coming to be with us on the weekend of February 10-11. He will be present for all Masses: Saturday 4:00 p.m., Sunday 9:00 a.m. and Sunday 11:00 a.m. I am not sure we have we have ever had a bishop for the entire weekend, so this will be a very special time. You will find Bishop Brennan to be a very friendly and caring soul, and very approachable. He has said, by the way, that people should call him “Bishop Brennan,” or “Bishop Mark,” or just “Bishop.”

In order to give everyone a chance to talk with the bishop, we are planning a dinner on Saturday evening, February 10, following the 4:00 p.m. Mass at St. Charles Borromeo. We will gather at 5:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall at St. Charles, with dinner served at 6:00 p.m. I want to emphasize that everyone from both parishes is invited. I hope to see lots of people there, and we will have a very good menu, put together by our very good chefs.

You will need to sign up for the dinner so that we will know how many to prepare for. The sign-up list will be in the narthex at both churches. The deadline for you to sign up will be Monday, February 5. If you did not sign up by that date, but want to come, please call the church office at 304-536-1813 on February 5th before 2:00 p.m.

May God richly bless you all,

Fr. Jim Conyers

Mass Intentions—we have openings for Mass Intentions at both churches for both weekday and week-end Masses. Please call or email the church office to arrange for a Mass to be said for your loved one.

The tradition of offering Masses for others, particularly the dead, originates in the very early Church. Inscriptions discovered on tombs in Roman catacombs of the second century evidence this practice: for example, the epitaph on the tomb of Abercius (d.180), Bishop of Hieropolis in Phrygia, begs for prayers for the repose of his soul. Tertullian (ca. 200) attested to observing the anniversary of a spouse with prayers and sacrifices, i.e. the Mass: “Indeed she prays for his soul, and requests refreshment for him meanwhile, and fellowship with him in the first resurrection; and she offers her sacrifice on the anniversaries of his falling asleep.”
